

INTERCULTURAL AND CONFLICT IN LATIN AMERICA:

Formulas about the applicability of the new legal pluralism in Bolivia.

*Madrid, Monday November 15th and Tuesday November 16th 2010.
Center for Political and Constitutional (Plaza de la Marina Española, 9)*

Sponsors:

Collaborate

PROGRAM

Monday November 15th 2010 (Tapestry Room, CEPC)

Welcome and Introduction

Paloma Biglino, General Director of the Center for Political and Constitutional Studies

Shlomo Ben Ami, Vice President of the Toledo International Centre for Peace

Juan Carlos Sánchez Alonso, General Director for Latin America, Spain's Ministry of Foreign Affairs

First Session:

Indigenous Justice under the new Constitution of Bolivia

Moderator: Baltasar Garzón, Advisor to the International Criminal Court, and Member of the Advisory Council CITpax

Presentation: Cecilia Ayllón, President of the Commission of Justice of Bolivia Plural

Juan del Granado, Lawyer, Former Mayor of the city, La Paz

Comments: Fadhila Mammam, Expert on Intercultural Mediation

Second Session:

Separate Jurisdiction Law

Moderator: Paloma Biglino, General Director of CEPC

Presentation: Isabel Ortega, Deputy Minister of Justice of Bolivia

Comments: Carlos Alarcón, Constitutional Lawyer, and Former Deputy Minister of Justice of Bolivia

Ramiro Orías, Lawyer, Professor at the Faculty of Law and Political Sciences of the Bolivian Catholic University and Director of the Foundation Building

Tuesday November 16th, 2010 (Tapestry Room, CEPC)

Third Session:

Judiciary and Constitutional Court

Moderator: Miguel Ángel Montañés, Attorney, General Secretary of the Constitutional Court of Spain

Presentation: Juan Lanchipa, President of the Constitutional Court of Bolivia

Comments: Beatriz Sandoval, Dean of the Supreme Court of Bolivia

Bernardo Wayar, President of the Bar Association of La Paz

Closing Session

Carmen Almendras, Ambassador of Bolivia in Madrid

Emilio Cassinello, General Director of the Toledo International Centre for Peace
